

A Willington History Group Event

David Adams presents:

“The Cavendish Family & Their History From The 11th Century”

The Dukes of Devonshire descend from Sir John Cavendish, whose name derives from the village of Cavendish in Suffolk, where he held lands in the fourteenth century. They document the history of Chatsworth and many of the other properties owned by the Cavendish family past and present, including Hardwick Hall, Bolton Abbey, Devonshire House, Burlington House, Chiswick House, Compton Place, Londesborough and Lismore Castle, as well as their associated estates.

Thursday 8 May 7.30pm

Willington Old School, Castleway, DE65 6BT
